Christmas Craft Market

I still have spots open for crafters/vendors who want a booth. Please promote our local craft show to your friends and families. Here is the info...

What: Christmas Craft Market

When: Sunday, November 22nd, 2009 from 10 am to 4 pm

Where: MERC Hall, Maitland

The Christmas Craft Market will host over 25 local crafters and artisans offering their unique, interesting handcrafted items perfect for gift giving. So far items include stunning local photography, creative collage, timeless garden art, hand crafted silver jewelry, mission style furniture, unique folding wooden furniture, sock monkeys and much more.

A letter has been sent to Santa Claus to see if he might be able to stop by for pictures with the children & there will be a special craft area set up just for the children so parents can shop while the children create an ornament to decorate the tree.

For details please contact Anne-Marie at (613) 246-5006 or amrennick@gmail.com

SHOUT SISTER is a women's voices choir that is directed by multi-award winning, Juno nominee, blues singer/songwriter Georgette Fry. Practices take place on Wednesday nights from 7 - 9 at the MERC Hall. Auditions are not required and no one reads music. Come out and participate in an evening of great music in a relaxed and fun atmosphere, with a talented and passionate director! More information can be found at <http://shoutsister.georgettefry.ca>. Look under the mission statement for information.
